

Spanish - Professions, verb 'to be' (Ser).

Keys to Success

Knowledge and skills

Empowers You to Succeed

Knowledge & Grammar

paciente - path - ee -en-tay
valiente - val - ee -en-tay

dentista - dent - eesta
taxista - tax - eesta

Phonics

Phonics

The 3 Pillars

Crontron CE

Primary School

Year 6 Spring 1

Vocabulary

Ser - to be

I am soy we are somos

you are eres you are sois (1 person) (group of people)

he/she is es they are son

Las Profesiones Professions

Some professions have male and female endings.

un médico

una médica

un bombero

una bombera

una cocinera

un cocinero

una peluquera

un peluquero

Patterns in Professions

Nouns ending in or: Add a for the feminine form.

un profesor

una profesora

un agricultor

una agricultora

For some it is just the article that indicates gender

un piloto

una piloto

un astronauta

una astronauta

Nouns ending in ista

un/una dentista

un/una futbolista

Nouns ending in ante

un/una cantante

un/una estudiante

Use the paradigm above to make different sentences. Remember to make endings agree!

Eres cocinero. You're a chef. (male)

Somos cocineros. We are chefs. (male)

Es cocinera. She's a chef (female)

Son cocineras. They are chefs. (female)

¿Qué quieres ser?

What do you want to be?

Notice that Spanish people do not use the word 'a' before the job title.

Quiero ser cocinero.

I want to be a chef

Describing attributes needed for each profession. Some adjectives have to agree with the person they describe.

Quiero ser astronauta porque soy aventurero

Quiero ser astronauta porque soy aventurera

I want to be an astronaut because I'm adventurous.

kind simpático/a

fun divertido/a

serious serio/a

hardworking trabajador/a

Others do not need to change

Valiente

paciente

inteligente

Brave

patient

intelligent